FANTASY OF LIGHTS AT VASONA PARK IS GOING TO THE DOGS

Take your dog along on the Lime Green Party Machine to see the lights and socialize with other dogs.

SANTA CRUZ, CA - Get you and your pooch into the holiday spirit and join Society Dog on Wednesday, December 19th for a fun trip to see the 9th Annual Fantasy of Lights at Vasona Park in Los Gatos.

"We have been offering this trip in the South Bay for years, and we are excited about taking a group of dogs and their people from Santa Cruz to see the show," says Alpha Dog Terri Festa.

This year's spectacular light show features the Fantasy Train, Tunnel of Lights, and Pirate Ship with booming cannons, as well as Dinosaur Den II featuring Tyrannosaurus Rex, Brontosaurus and new den mates Raptor, Parasarolophus, mother triceratops and Pterodactyl.

The Lime Green Bus will leave December 19th from the Petsmart parking lot on River Street in Santa Cruz at 6pm to go to Vasona Park in Los Gatos. The cost is $10 per person, and includes a musical bus ride, Vasona Park entrance, hot drinks, and doggie treats.

Society Dog is a social club for dogs and their people. It promotes socialization of dogs and creates communities of responsible dog lovers who enjoy fun events with their pets. Check out the Society Dog website to see and hear what all the barking is about.
